Why does it feel so hot today?

That's what you get for not drinking enough water.

Stop bickering, we're almost at the skate park!

Guys, that man looks like he needs help.

Here, mister. You should take a rest.

Yeah, the weather has been really hot lately.

Thank you, you're such kind young people!

No problem, mister! It's always good to help others.

Ah, I know!

These 'chewy cookies' are my special recipe. They make you smarter and focus better in school. Don't they sound great?

When you encounter tricky people:
Stop! Walk Away! Tell a trusted adult!

CAPTAIN DRUG BUSTER

Why? Don't you want everyone to have a good time?

Get your so-called treats away from these kids.

Stay away from him and whatever he offers, kids. He's bad news!

And... that's my cue to leave.

Till we meet again, old friend.

Kids, don't be fooled by these cookies.

I knew something was wrong with them!

Oh no, what's wrong with them?

They contain cannabis, a harmful drug that you should all stay away from. They can induce vomiting and cause all sorts of side effects, such as headaches, dizziness and drowsiness.

Sometimes, cannabis is added as ingredients to food like candies and cakes, and portrayed as harmless.

Oh no! It's a good thing we didn't eat them. We have to know how to spot these harmful drugs hidden in food we would easily eat without thinking twice.

SPOT THE DRUGS!

Can you spot which of these contain illegal drugs?

UNSCRAMBLED

Unscramble the jumbled letters to find out the harmful effects cannabis can have on your body.

Hint: refer to page 2 for clues!

I can't believe he tried to trick us into taking drugs!

We'll have to be more alert when it comes to such situations in the future.

That's right,

we should tell our friends that illegal drugs could be hidden in food. That way, we can all be aware and stay safe!

Captain Drug Buster, why would someone go around encouraging others to take drugs? That's just evil!

Doctor Wacko used to be a dear friend of mine – until drugs changed him.

It all began one day, when he started hanging out with people who offered him drugs. He didn't want to look uncool in front of those 'friends', and he thought one try couldn't hurt as long as he stopped afterwards. So he said yes.

But he kept going back for more and well... he's addicted now.

Let that be a lesson, my friends. Stay away from drugs, they're not worth it.

The next day at school

It looks like some sort of powder.

Get your hands off!
It's mine!

Woah, are you okay?

You look really sick.
Do you want to go to the sick bay?

No! You're just trying to steal my stuff, I won't fall for it.

Wei Jun, are these drugs?

You look unwell...
You're sweating a lot and you seem paler than usual.

You don't understand!
This is the only thing helping me to focus on my studies!

My grades have been failing, and I need the drugs to help me concentrate.

Wei Jun, we're just worried about you. Taking drugs actually makes it harder to focus, you shouldn't be using them at all.

So what?! I've been so overwhelmed with tests and exams.

These drugs calm me down and help me focus on studying. Nothing else works anymore, there's no way out.

That's a myth. Drugs are never the solution; in fact, they only create more problems.

New psychoactive substances [NPS] go by many names – such as 'spice' or bath salts. They may sound harmless, but they actually contain unknown and harmful substances. Abusing drugs can lead to memory loss, anxiety, hallucinations, and even heart problems.

Remember kids, even if someone tells you that NPS are safe, stay away from them! Say 'NO' to drugs!

Did you know?

1. NPS are substances that copy the effects of illegal drugs.
2. Hallucinations happen when you hear, see or experience something that is not there.

Hey, that's Captain Drug Buster!

We should tell him what we've encountered so far.

Captain!

Oh, it's you three! I hope you've kept my words in mind and been staying alert against drugs.

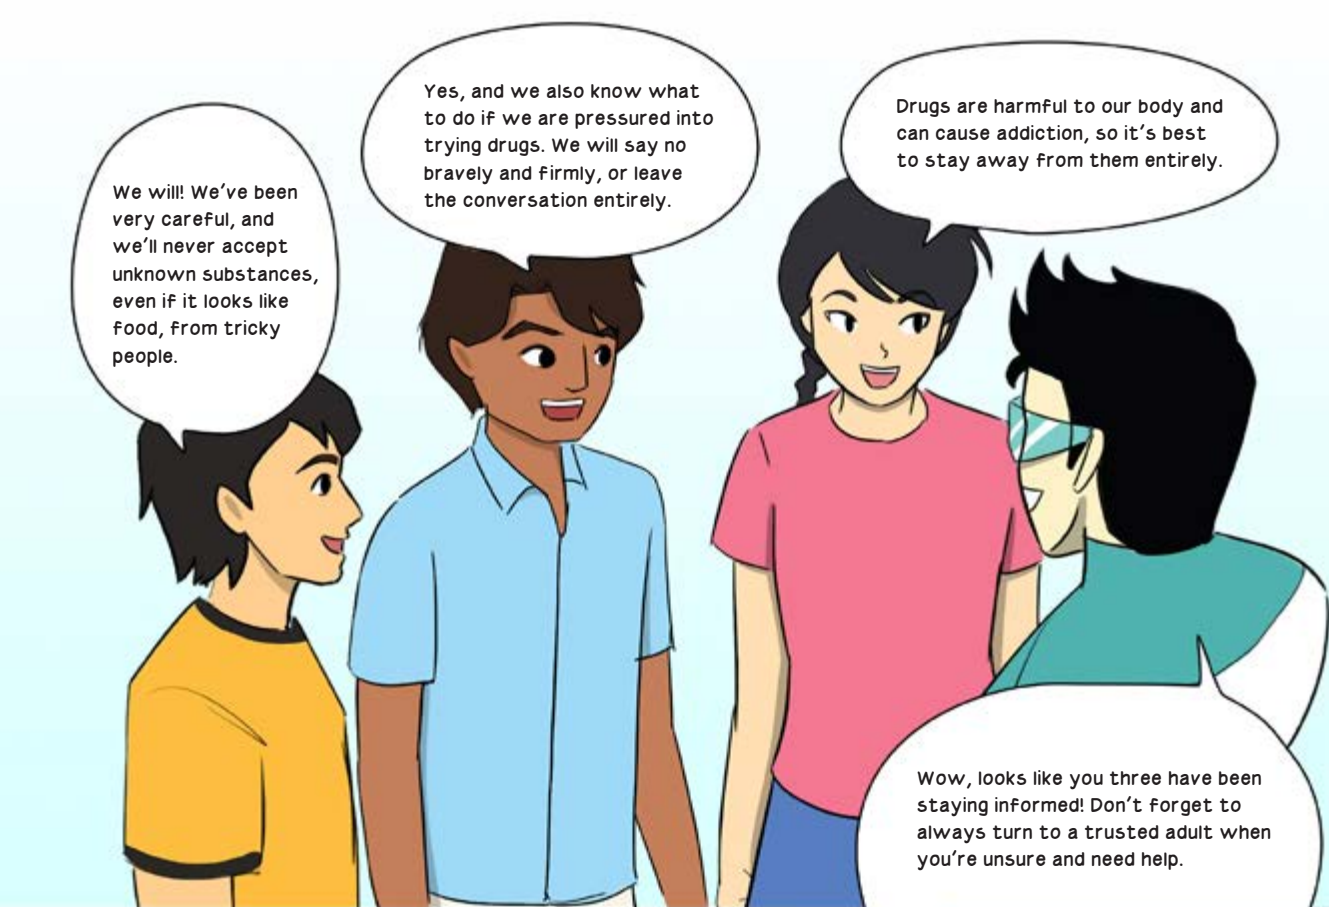

Actually, we have a classmate who received some drugs from Doctor Wacko and started using them to concentrate when he studies!

We also found out more students in school have been approached by Doctor Wacko too.

That's right, we're worried that his plans are already being put into action.

Don't worry, kids. I'll make sure to capture him and put a stop to his plans. Continue to keep your guard up.

We will! We've been very careful, and we'll never accept unknown substances, even if it looks like food, from tricky people.

Yes, and we also know what to do if we are pressured into trying drugs. We will say no bravely and firmly, or leave the conversation entirely.

Drugs are harmful to our body and can cause addiction, so it's best to stay away from them entirely.

Wow, looks like you three have been staying informed! Don't forget to always turn to a trusted adult when you're unsure and need help.

I know that cape!

Stay put, kids. I'm going after Doctor Wacko.

Was that Doctor Wacko?
We need to do something!

But Captain Drug
Buster told us to stay put!

Let's follow him,
and if it gets serious, we'll call for help.

Quick, we need to call the
Central Narcotics Bureau [CNB]!

If you have any drug-related encounters,
contact CNB at 1800 325 6666

Hold it right there, Doctor Wacko. I'm putting a stop to this right now.

Come on, Dan. Is this any way to treat your old pal?

Don't call me that. You've changed. You're not the Wayne I used to know.

What's wrong, old friend? Feeling guilty about how you betrayed me?

I was trying to help you.

By destroying everything I worked so hard for? By calling CNB on me?

You were trying to sell cookies with drugs in them.

I couldn't just sit back and let you ruin your own and other people's lives like that.

Oh? Well if you think you can stop me this time.....

Think again!

Looks like I'll have to use my secret weapon.

Put those away! They're only harming you and you know it.

Agh! No, what's happening?!

You're suffering from the harmful effects of drug abuse. You should have known this would happen.

No! Stop talking to me! The drugs are supposed to help me, they're supposed to make me strong!

That's enough, Wayne. You're being overtaken by drugs.

What's happening? Why does everything hurt?

Dan? Is that you? Help me, what's going on?! I don't want this!
